

Reconstruction
By Andrew Warner Period 5

Klu Klux Klan members terrorized freedman.

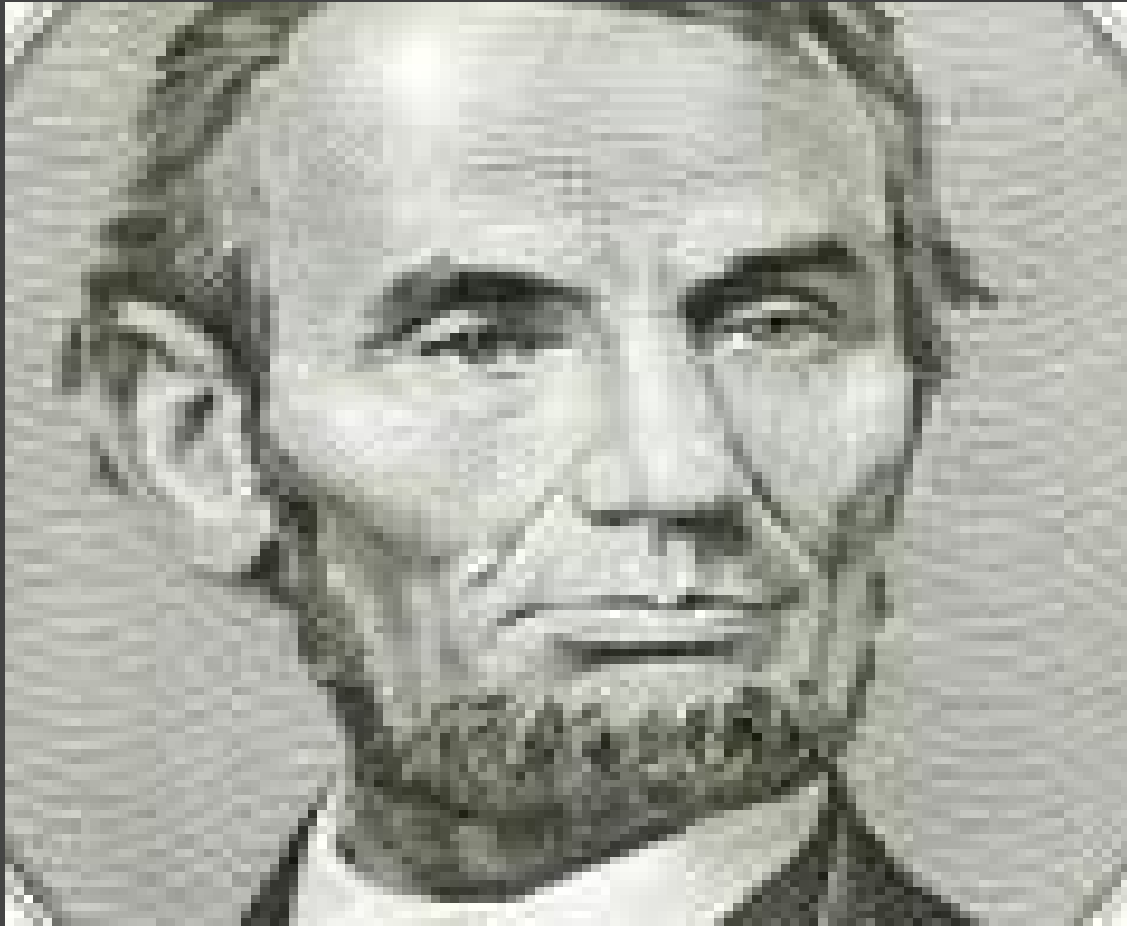

Union soldiers after the war.

A house in the south after the war. Many people struggled during reconstruction.

Young freedmen. Freedmen suffered from unjust laws in the south.

Abraham Lincoln was assassinated. Reconstruction was delayed.

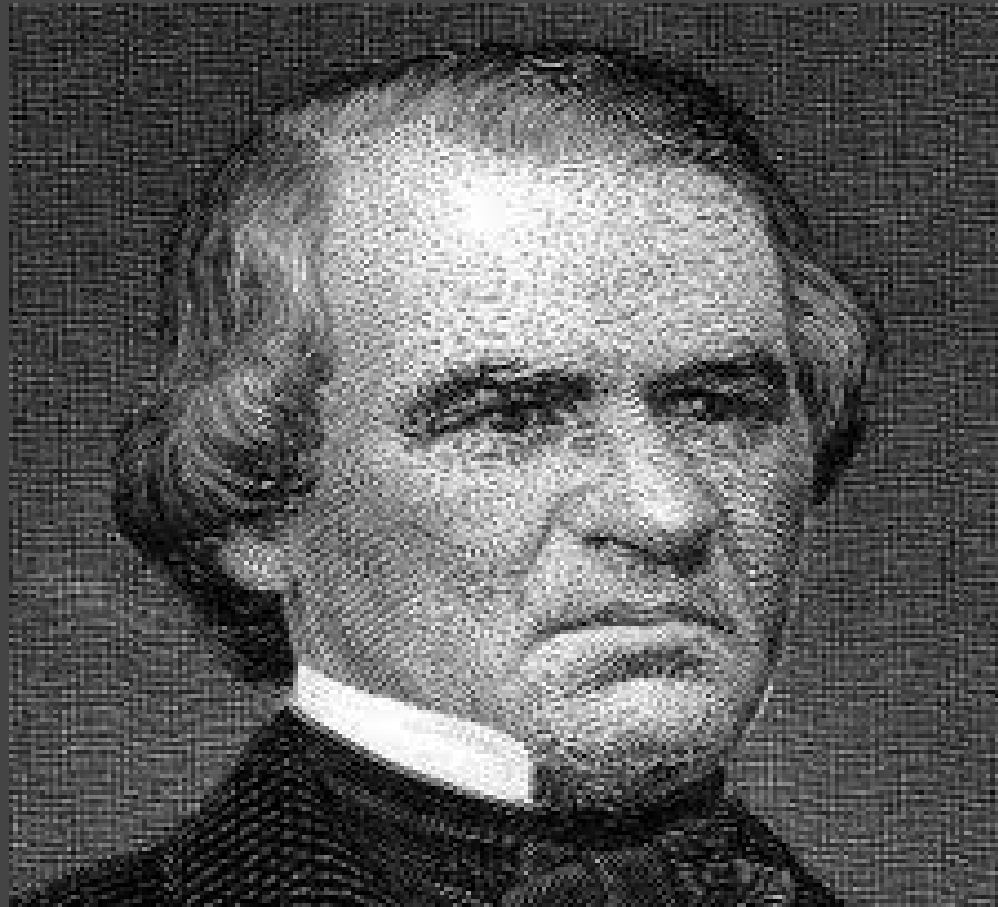

John Wilkes Booth murdered the president in Fords theatre.

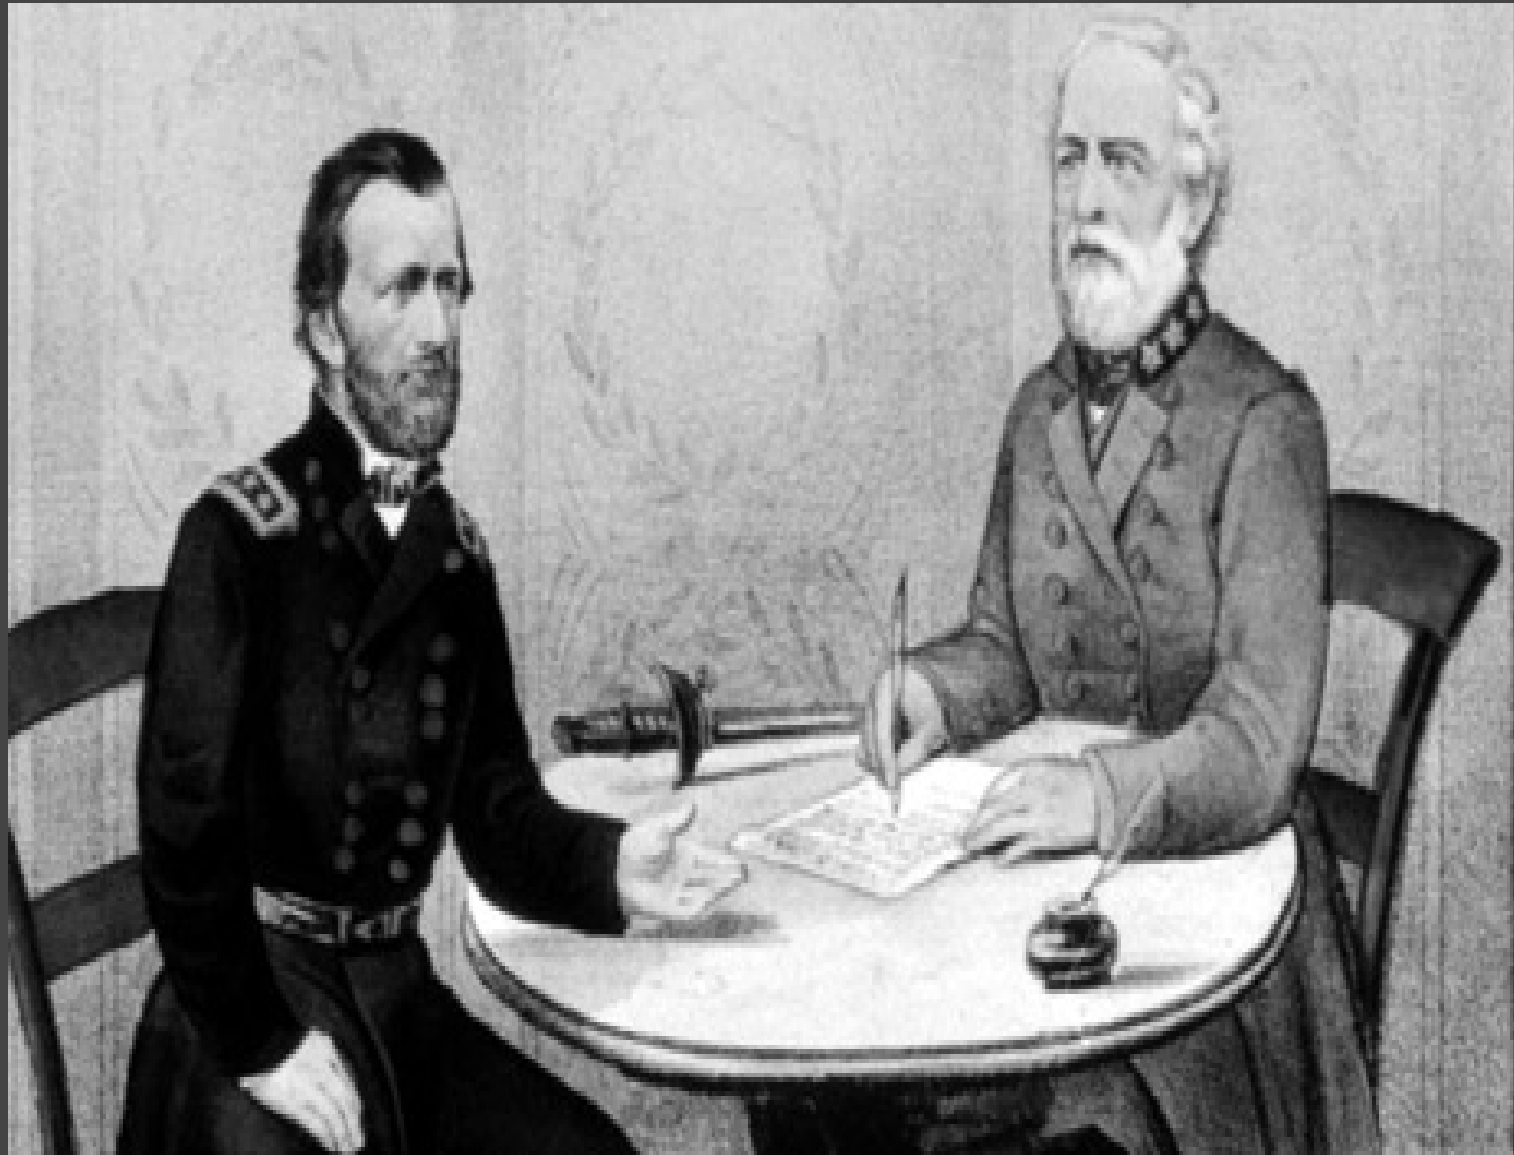

Inside a Freedmen's Bureau school

Black earned the right to be educated.

Andrew Johnson became president. He often fought with congress.

Ulysses Grant became president in his later years.

Massive devastation cost millions to repair.

Freedman eventually earned the right to vote.

Ku Klux Klan Founders
Nathan Bedford Forrest

The Ku Klux Klan members were widely known.

Freedman could often only find jobs in agriculture.

Blacks and whites were treated as seperate but "equal".

Black became the prey of attack and murder across the nation.

Abolitionists helped earn the rights of blacks but couldn't get equal rights.

J. W.
Mellon,
Chief

David
Patterson

Paul
Hogan
Hughes

Robert
Hughes
Grier

James
Henry
Wheeler

Salmon
Preston
Chase

David
Dwight

William
Coffey

Samuel
Frederick
Miller

Stephen
Johnson
Field

Johnson was impeached. His lawyer< Chase Salmon kept him in office.

The Klu Klux Klan vowed to "Defend the rights of the white race".

TO THE Freedmen.

WENDELL PHILLIPS
ON LEARNING TO READ AND WRITE.

BOSTON, July 15, 1863.

My Dear Friend:

You ask me what the North thinks about letting the Negro vote. My answer is, two-thirds of the North are willing he should vote, and one of these thirds is determined he shall vote, and will not rest till he does. But the opposition is very strong, and I fear we may see it put off for many a year.

Possibly there may be an agreement made, that those who can read and write shall vote, and no others.

Urge, therefore, every colored man at once to learn to read and write. His right to vote may very likely depend on that. Let him lose no time, but learn to read and write at once.

Yours truly,

DR. JAMES KIRKPATRICK

WENDELL PHILLIPS.

Many people supported equal rights, like this journalist.