

Carpentbagers or Northerners that carried cheap carpents as bags to the south. They got their nickname because they were there to benefit for the chaos of reconstruction.

Nathan Bedford Forrest formed the KKK after the civil war. The group was formed to promote white supremacy and keep Africans from having rights.

John Wilkes Both assassinated
Abraham Lincoln in Ford's theater.

After killing Lincoln John fled South the find a doctor for his broken leg but as he hide in a barn men on the manhunt for wilkes burn the barn down killing him.

All african schools wre a common thing in Amercan as most africans were illiterate, and needed teaching but whites would not let them in their schools.

After the war most Africans returned to work in the fields as farmers. They are illiterate so farming was all they were good at.

When blacks became free the south tied to limit the freedom of the freedmen with the black codes.

BLACK CODES

"FROM PAST TO PRESENT"

BROTHER SABIR BEY

The End of Slavery: THE CREATION OF THE 13TH AMENDMENT

After the war Lincoln created the 13th amendment to free africans forever from slavery and forced labor.

To fill in the loop holes the 13th amendment left the government created the 14 and 15 to insure Africans their rights.

Black Voting Rights:

THE CREATION
OF THE 15TH
AMENDMENT

The battlefields that were littered with bodies needed cleaning. Which mostly went to the African Americans that needed work.

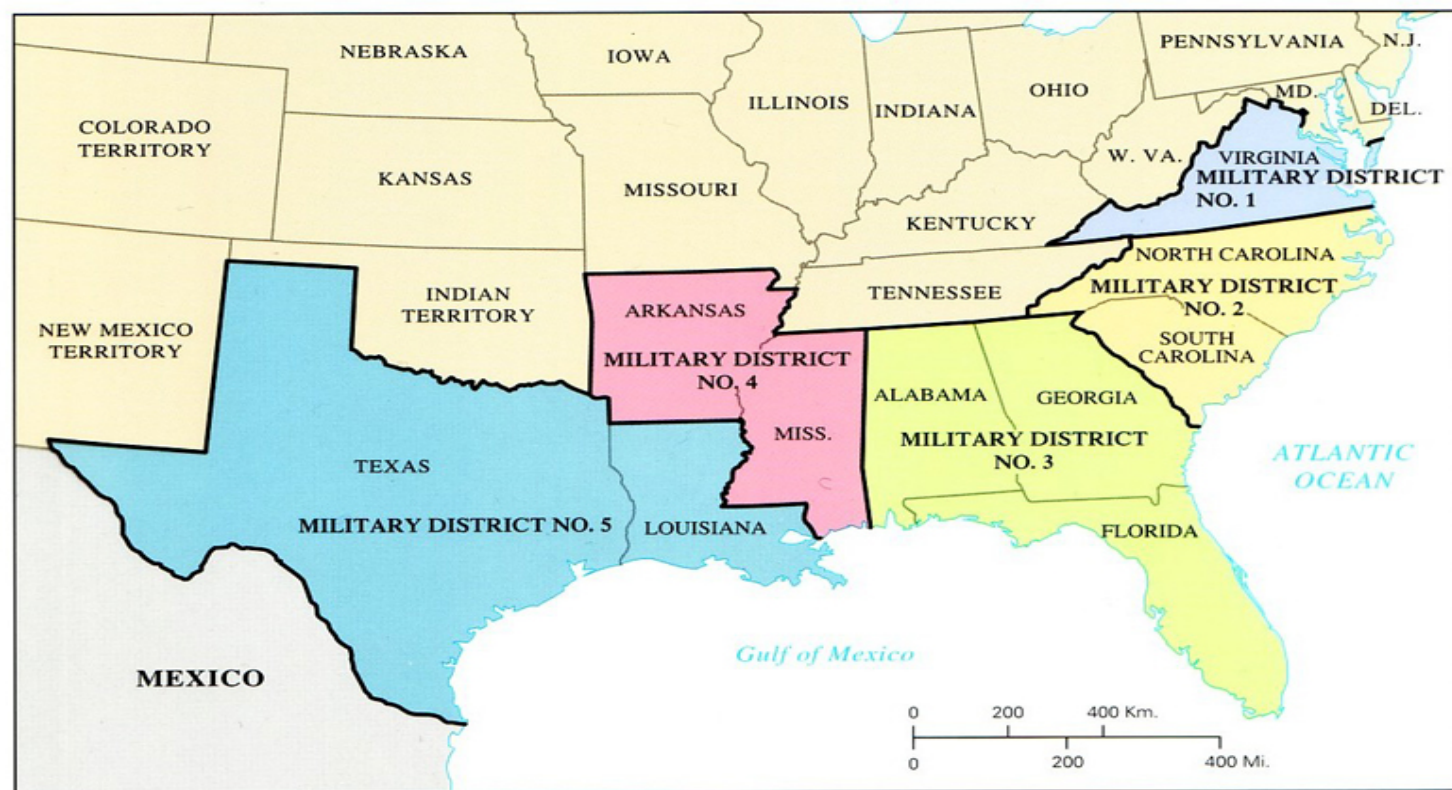

Reconstruction of the Capitol

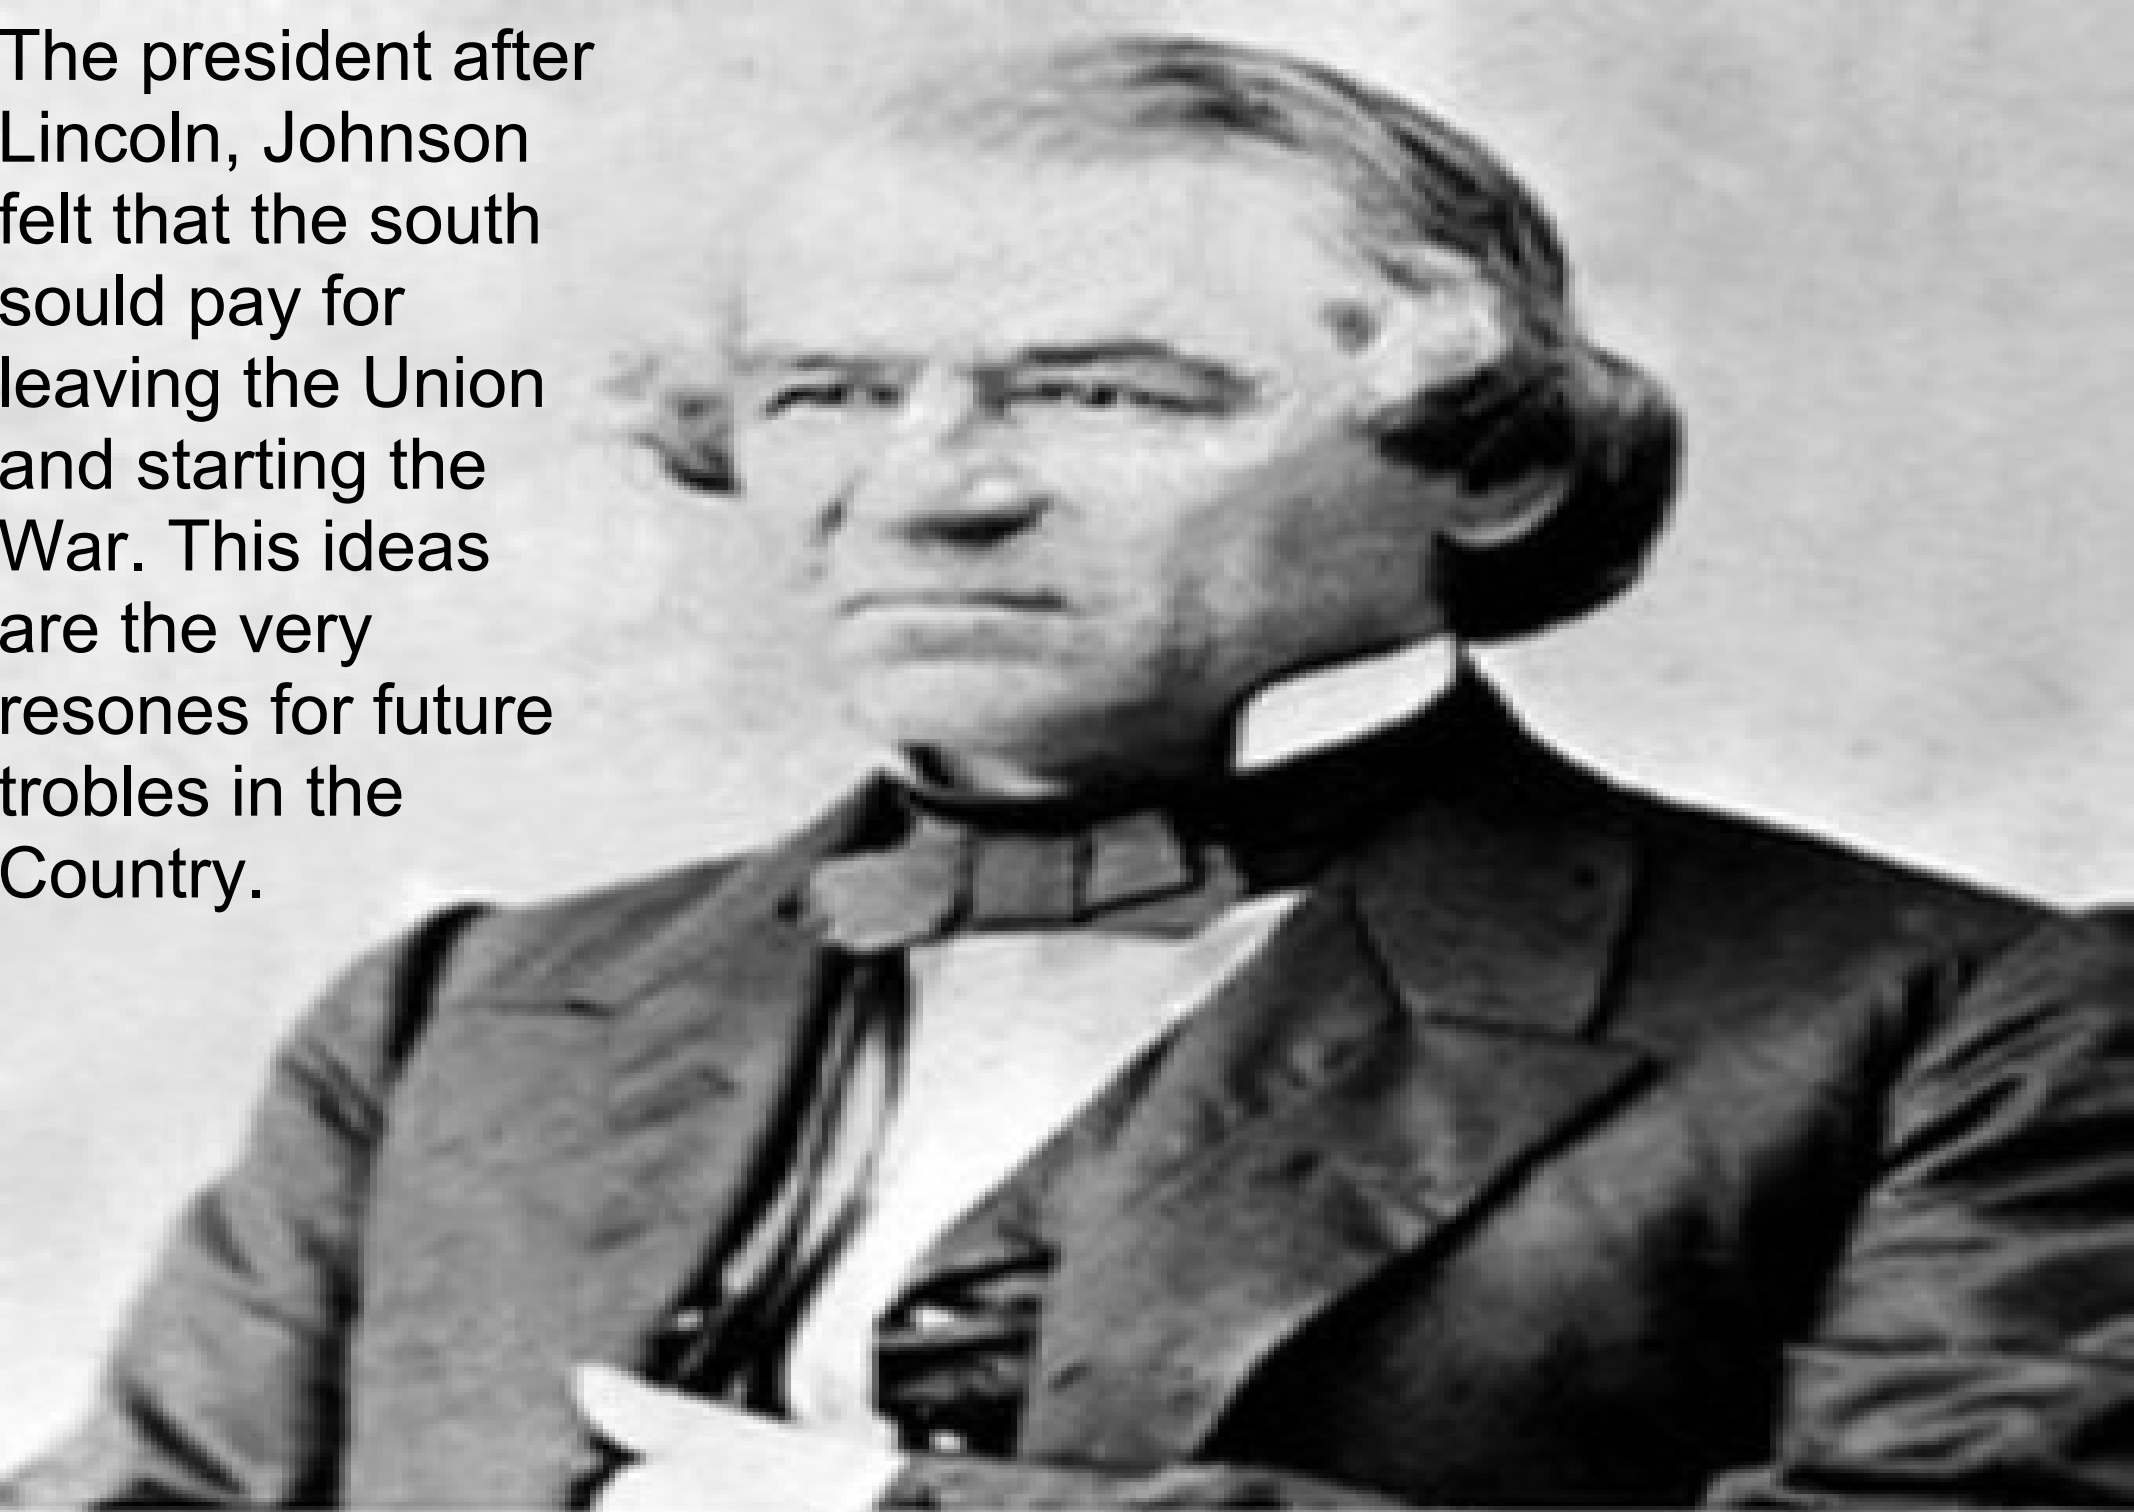

The war left many city destroyed and as reconstruction started rebuilding was part of it.

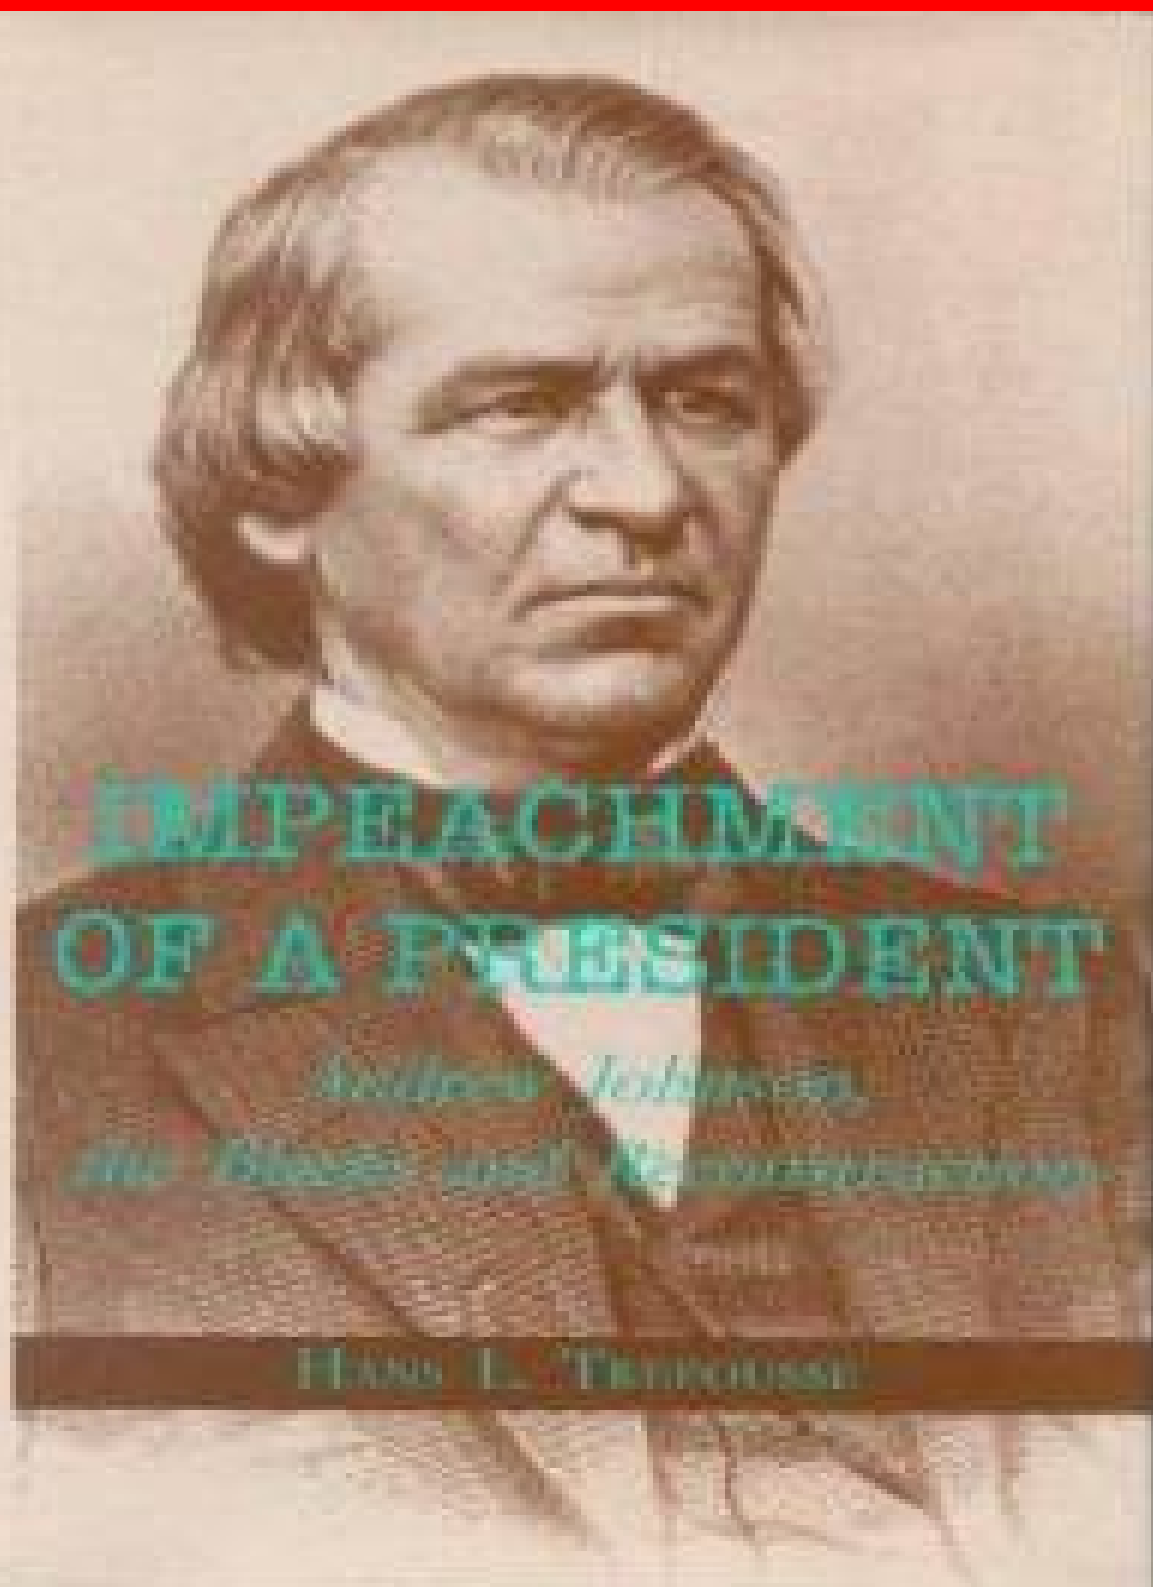

With the reconstruction act in place the southern states were split into 5 military districts. These were there to keep order, and make sure africans get their rights.

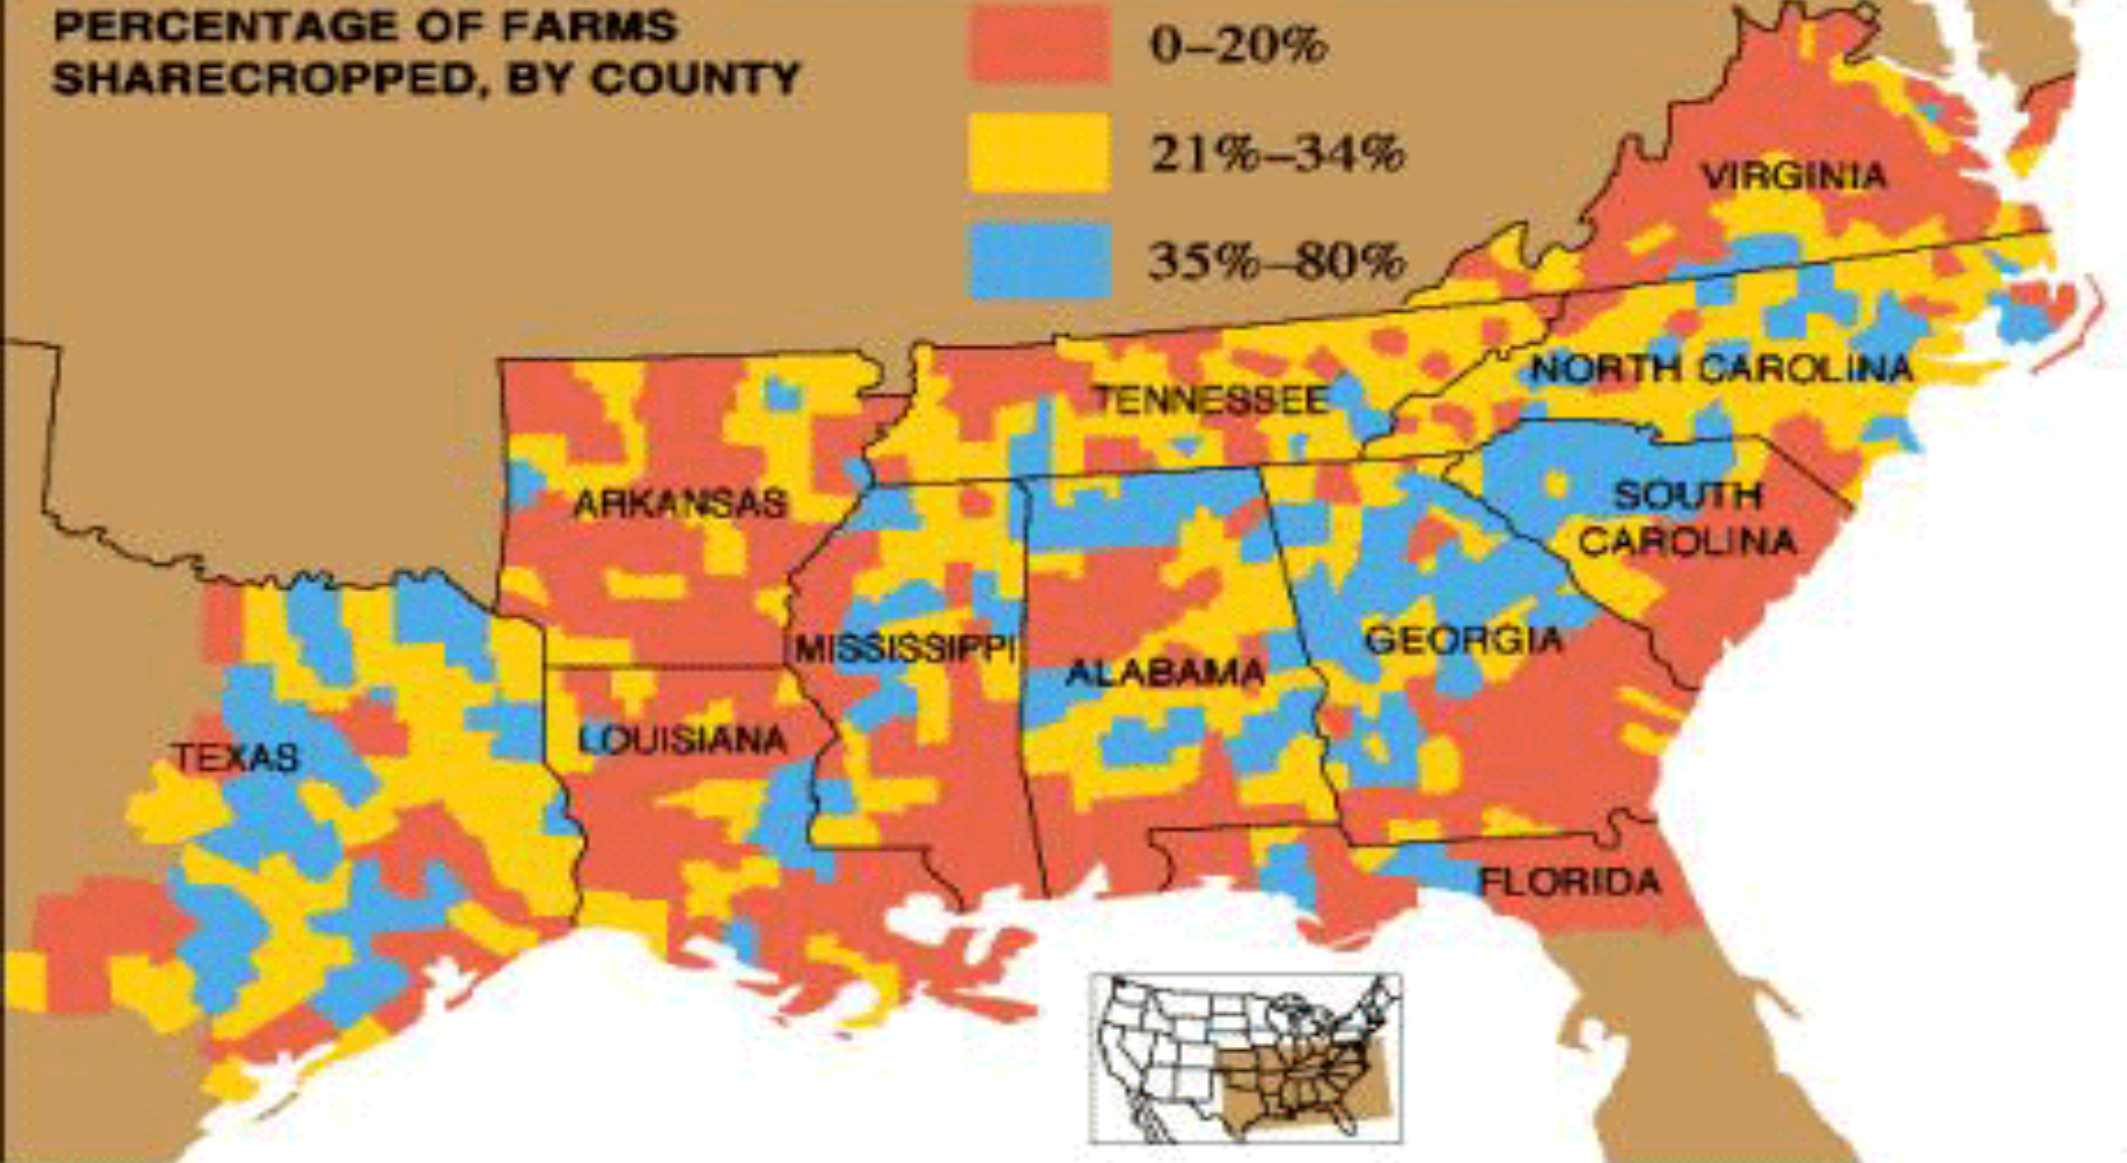

The president after Lincoln, Johnson felt that the south should pay for leaving the Union and starting the War. This ideas are the very resones for future troubles in the Country.

President Andrew Johnson

Johnson's disigements with Congress lead to his impeachment. Where he was voted to stay in office by one vote.

Because so many africans were poor they couldn't afford land. So white southernns would lend them land for them to work. At havest they would get a percant of the money and some of the crop.
Sharing the profit.

With out the millitary distacts in place the KKK, racimicm became a huge problem in the south. Africans and whites had to had different areas to eat, seat, go the bathroom, etc. But the kkk would attack and harm your family if you tryed to exice your rights at all.